Course Description

This course presents an introduction to the study of religion(s) in different Asian cultural and historical contexts. Lectures and supporting readings explore the development and transformation of religious traditions, the conjunctures of religion and power, and the production and circulation of varieties of religious literature, knowledge, and practice.

Course Requirements

i) Reading, Participation, and Attendance (20%)
Please read closely and reflect on all readings assigned for the day before coming to class, and be prepared to participate actively in classroom discussion. Please bring the day's readings with you to class, as either a printout or on some type of e-device that is not a phone.

Nearly all readings for this course constitute primary sources, composed at different times and in different places across Asia over an approximately 3000-year period. Readings have been kept short, since you are advised to read them before lecture and preferably at least once again after lecture, for full comprehension.

Close attention to the content of lectures is absolutely crucial to success in this course. It will not be possible to properly understand and contextualize the readings, and therefore to pass the course, if you do not listen carefully and take detailed notes on each lecture.
We will begin with the assumption that you take an active interest in your education and in the content of this course. I will not take attendance unless it appears that students are routinely absent from class. Each additional unexcused absence will result in a ½ letter grade deduction from your final grade (e.g. if you were to receive a B, you will receive a C+). Students with six or more unexcused absences will receive a nonnegotiable F for the course.

Excused absences (including on quiz days) require an official note from Office of the Dean of Students (http://deanofstudents.rutgers.edu/locations/), which is only issued when a student presents medical or other documentation for the absence. Make-up quizzes will not be permitted without such a note. It is not necessary to email me about absences or "self-report" your absence on https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/.

ii) Quizzes (60%)
There will be three quizzes throughout the semester, each worth 20% of your final grade. The quizzes will cover the full content of lectures and readings. Content from the readings not explicitly covered in lecture may appear on a quiz.

iii) Final Paper (20%)
Students will write a final five- to six- page paper for this course, due May 6 at 5pm. We will discuss further guidelines and strategies for this project in class.

To submit: please upload your final paper as an attachment in .doc, .docx, .rtf, or .pdf format to the "assignments" folder in Sakai whereupon it will be screened for originality by TurnItIn. Note that you should not need to visit the TurnItIn site and create an account for this purpose, although you may receive an email asking you to do so. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Please prepare all written assignments in 12-pt Times New Roman font and double-spaced US Letter page format with one-inch margins.

Course Policies

i) Academic Integrity
Familiarize yourself with Rutgers policies and materials concerning academic integrity and plagiarism at the following sites:
http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu
http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/resources Cheating and plagiarism are serious offenses. Any student found to have committed or aided the offence of plagiarism is subject to penalties in accordance with the policies of the University.

ii) Use of electronic equipment
Please turn off all mobile phones, computers, and other electronic devices before class. Laptops, tablets, or e-readers may (an in fact are encouraged to be) used in class for readings. The use of electronic equipment for any other purpose will result in expulsion from the day's lecture, and may carry further penalties. Recording devices are not permitted.

iii) Digital transmission of course-related content and work
You may not reproduce or transmit lecture notes, readings, audio, video, lecture slides, or any course-related content via the internet. Discussion of this class online (e.g., on Facebook) requires the prior approval of Dr. Lammerts. Failure to obtain prior approval may constitute a violation of academic integrity as well as copyright policies.
iv) Grading System
A=100-90, B+=89-87, B=86-80, C+=79-77, C=76-70, D=69-65, F=64 and below. Incompletes, i.e., "T" grades, will not be given under normal circumstances.

v) Office hours and appointments
Please email Dr. Lammerts if you intend to come to office hours, or if you would like to schedule an appointment to meet at another time or location.

vi) Contacting me via email
Developing skill in crafting formal emails and letters is essential for effective communication in professional contexts. If you contact me via email, kindly ensure that your email is composed properly as a formal letter. That is, your email should include a concise and descriptive subject line, appropriate salutation (Dear Dr./Professor Lammerts), body, and closing (Best Regards, Sincerely, etc.) followed by your name. Do not use “Hi Dr.” or “Hey Prof.” (or similar) as a salutation. The body should fully explain your question or comment in clear and correct prose. Note that I typically check my email only several times per week. That is, do not expect me to respond if you send me an email about a quiz the night before. Plan ahead!
