Course Description:

This course examines the beliefs, practices, and sacred writings of Judaism, Islam, Christianity, and indigenous traditions.

Objectives: By the conclusion of the course participants should be able to:

- Understand the bases and development of human and societal endeavors across time and place.
- Explain the development of some aspect of a society or culture over time, including the history of ideas or history of science.
- Demonstrate familiarity with major themes, practices, and sacred writings of major western religious traditions,
- Demonstrate familiarity with the various methodologies and approaches in the study of religions, and
- Demonstrate familiarity with major trends and themes in the development and intersection of western religious traditions.

The Required Text for the course:

Textbooks are available at the Rutgers Bookstore, a Barnes & Noble College Bookstore.

❖ Willard G. Oxtoby and Amir Hussain, World Religions: Western Traditions, 4th ed. (Toronto: Oxford University Press, 2014).

❖ Articles and primary sources will be available on SAKAI.

❖ Other readings or media may be assigned during the course of the semester.

Attendance & Participation

Students are expected to attend each class on time. Attendance will be taken at each class meeting. You are permitted three unexcused absences. Following the third unexcused absence 1/3 of a letter grade will be deducted for each unexcused absence. Students who encounter any extended problem with absences, for example, for medical or family emergencies, or religious reasons, must inform me in writing about the reason and duration of the absence. Decisions on excused absences will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Short quizzes may be given. There will be no make-ups for in-class quizzes or exams.

Student participation is an integral component for the success of this class. Course participants will be expected to arrive to class on time, and prepared to discuss the assigned readings. Please bring assigned readings to class as we will frequently consult the text, particularly the primary sources. Participation not only means asking questions and involving oneself in the classroom discussion, it also means actively listening to others.

Requirements:

- ❖ Participation, attendance, in-class assignments (5%)
- ❖ Exam I (25%)
- ❖ Exam II (25%)
- ❖ Exam III (Final Exam, not cumulative) (25%)
- ❖ Final Essay (20%)- Due on December 9th in-class (no extensions)
- ❖ All students must come to office hours at least once during the semester.

 Students must complete all course requirements in order to receive a passing grade

Written work will be graded on the basis of content, clarity of argument, quality of writing, and how well it analyzes the material and answers the questions. Written work, except for that which is a classroom assignment, must be typed (double-spaced, 12 pt. font), and spell-checked. One letter grade per day will be deducted for late papers unless you have a written medical excuse.

Classroom Policies:

❖ Plagiarism and cheating will be penalized according to the full extent of University policy. Please consult Rutgers University's Policy on Academic Integrity for Undergraduate and Graduate Students:

<http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/integrity.shtml#plagiarism>

❖ Students with disabilities who require accommodations should provide me with their "accommodation letter" from the Office of Disability Services as soon as possible so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Please consult the website of the Office of Disability Services for further information:
